RELEASE OF BACKGROUND CHECK RESULTS

I hereby certify that I have given National Background Check, Inc. permission to obtain all criminal history information pertaining to me in the files of the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation (BCI&I), the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) (if requested), and release that information to the company/agency /individual indicated above.

By placing my fingerprint images on the WEBCHECK Scanner, I am authorizing BCI&I to release criminal history information about me to National Background Check, Inc. and the company/agency /individual indicated above. I hereby release BCI&I and any and all individuals connected therewith from all liability in connection with the dissemination of such criminal history information.

I understand National Background Check, Inc. can not guarantee that my fingerprint images will be deemed readable by BCI&I, in which case I may need to be re-fingerprinted. I understand this does not constitute a refund due to charges incurred by BCI&I immediately after the data is transmitted. National Background Check, Inc. will assist me with the process to complete this background check if I am rejected a second time.

I understand that using the WEBCHECK System returns a "no hit" (those containing no criminal history) result within (10) ten business days or sooner or a "mailed" result (those that contain a criminal arrest history) could take up to (30) thirty business days before being forwarded to the requested destination.

1812.0 – Employment Letter of Understanding

Employment Letter of Understanding Instructions

The template on the following page is to be used to document the salary, benefits and employment relationship for any person employed within the Diocese of Columbus on an “at-will” basis. This should include all employees other than school principals, assistant principals and teachers, and any other employee where a contractual arrangement has been approved by the Bishop of Columbus. To complete the template:

1. enter the employee’s name in the first blank
2. enter the entity’s name in the second blank
3. enter the effective date of the information in the third blank
4. enter the employee’s title in Position Title
5. enter either Exempt or Non-Exempt in Position Classification. Please refer to Policy 801.0 for a definition of Exempt and Non-Exempt
6. Under Type of Employment enter either Full-time or Part-Time and Regular or Temporary
7. under Expected Work Schedule enter the hours per week you expect the employee to work and the months per year you expect the employee to work
8. under Terms of Understanding, modify #4 as appropriate – either Employee will or will not be offered benefits per Policy 701.0
9. under Terms of Understanding, #5 requires that a Job Description be attached. Please make sure that the Job Description is accurate and up-to-date.
10. under Terms of Understanding, add any other terms that are important to clarifying the employment relationship
11. enter the Compensation and specify if this is per year or per hour
12. enter whether the person is eligible for benefits. Please remember that you must follow the parameters in Policy 701.0 to make this determination
13. enter any Benefit Time that the person will earn during the year. This should be per your written Benefit Time Policy.

Please contact the Finance Office if you have questions or need assistance.

Employment Letter of Understanding

This Letter of Understanding, by and between _____ (“Employee”) and _____ (“Employer”) defines the understanding of the parties with regards to the employment of Employee by Employer as of _____.

Position Title:

Position Classification: Exempt/Non-Exempt

Type of Employment: Full-time/Part-Time, Regular/Temporary

Expected Work Schedule: _____ hours per week, _____ months per year, excepting allowed vacation, holiday and other allowed time-off

Terms of Understanding

1. The employment relationship between Employer and Employee is “at will”. This means that either Employee or Employer can end the relationship at any time and for any reason other than those prohibited by law. Neither Employer nor Employee has a legal obligation to continue the employment for any particular length of time or to end it only upon certain reasons or procedures. Should the employment relationship end, all compensation will cease as of the last day of employment. Benefits will cease as per the terms of the applicable benefits document.
2. Employee understands that as an employee of a Catholic institution Employee is expected to abide by Catholic Church teachings, both within and outside their employment duties, and regardless of her/his religious affiliation. As such, Employee agrees to refrain from conduct or lifestyle which would be in contradiction to Catholic doctrine or morals. Employee also agrees to comply with and act consistently in accordance with the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church, and the rules, regulations, and policies of the employing agency and the Diocese of Columbus now in effect, or that may hereinafter be adopted governing this employment, including but not limited to the attached Adherence to Church Teachings policy. Employee understands and agrees that the Employer has the right to dismiss Employee for violation of these standards, thereby terminating any and all rights Employee may have to continued employment.
3. Compensation of the Employee will be reviewed annually and be determined at the sole discretion of Employer.
4. Benefits (i.e. insurance, pension, time off, etc.) will/will not be offered to Employee consistent with the benefits offered to other employees of Employer and consistent with Policy 701.0 Qualification for Benefits of the Financial Policy Manual.
5. Employee will undertake, to the best of their ability, to fulfill the duties and responsibilities as defined on the attached Job Description, which is hereby incorporated by reference.

Compensation: $_____ per year/hour

Benefits Eligible: Yes/No

Benefit Time: Vacation/PTO is accrued according to the Personnel Policy Manual.

Statement and Signature of Employee

The undersigned acknowledges and agrees to the understanding above. I will not rely on any statements made to me that are contrary to this understanding.

ADHERENCE TO CHURCH TEACHINGS

All personnel who serve in Catholic employment are expected to be examples of Catholic moral behavior and professionalism. All personnel, regardless of their religious affiliation, are therefore required to abide by the moral values advanced by the teachings of Christ, the tenets of the Catholic Church, and the policies and regulations of the Diocese and the employing agency or office. Personnel may be disciplined or terminated for violations of these standards, or any conduct which appears to reject or offend the teachings, doctrines, or principles of the Catholic Church. While there may be others not mentioned below, examples of conduct that may result in termination of employment include: (a) public support of activities or publically espousing beliefs contrary to Catholic Church teaching; (b) public statements disparaging or causing contempt against religion in general or the Catholic Church in particular; (c) entry into a marriage which is not recognized by the Catholic Church; (d) having an abortion or publically supporting abortion rights; (e) sexual relations (same or opposite sex) outside the institution of marriage as recognized by the Catholic Church; (f) pursuing or publically supporting in vitro fertilization. The teachings of the Catholic Church can be found in "The Catechism of the Catholic Church" which is on line at here http://www.vatican.va/archive/ENG0015/_INDEX.HTM.

Should you have any questions, feel free to contact Anne Streitenberger, Human Resources Director at 614-228-0024 or amstreitenberger@columbuscatholic.org. For CONFIDENTIAL questions or concerns, please e-mail your question to confidential@columbuscatholic.org.

Employee's Withholding Certificate

OMB No. 1545-0074

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
 Give Form W-4 to your employer.
 Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2-4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3-4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate

Complete Steps 3-4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3-4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 $ _____ Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here	3	$
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$

Step 5: Sign Here

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.) _____
Date

Employers Only	Employer's name and address	First date of employment	Employer identification number (EIN)
-----------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------------------

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2024 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2023 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2024. You had no federal income tax liability in 2023 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2023 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2024 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2025.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
3. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2024 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2024 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income
2 Enter: $29,200 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse; $21,900 if you're head of household; $14,600 if you're single or married filing separately
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate

Submit form IT 4 to your employer on or before the start date of employment so your employer will withhold and remit Ohio income tax from your compensation. If applicable, your employer will also withhold school district income tax. You must file an updated IT 4 when any of the information listed below changes (including your marital status or number of dependents). You should contact your employer for instructions on how to complete an updated IT 4. Your employer may require you to complete this form electronically.

Section I: Personal Information

Employee Name:	Employee SSN:
Address, city, state, ZIP code:
School district of residence (See The Finder at tax.ohio.gov):	School district number (####):

Section II: Claiming Withholding Exemptions

1. Enter "0" if you are a dependent on another individual's Ohio return; otherwise enter "1"
2. Enter "0" if single or if your spouse files a separate Ohio return; otherwise enter "1"

IT 4 Instructions

Most individuals are subject to Ohio income tax on their wages, salaries, or other compensation. To ensure this tax is paid, employers maintaining an office or transacting business in Ohio must withhold Ohio income tax, and school district income tax if applicable, from each individual who is an employee.

Such employees who are subject to Ohio income tax (and school district income tax, if applicable) should complete sections I, II, and IV of the IT 4 to have their employer withhold the appropriate Ohio taxes from their compensation. If the employee does not complete the IT 4 and return it to his/her employer, the employer:

- Will withhold Ohio tax based on the employee claiming zero exemptions, and
- Will not withhold school district income tax, even if the employee lives in a taxing school district.

An individual may be subject to an interest penalty for underpayment of estimated taxes (on form IT/SD 2210) based on under-withholding.

Certain employees may be exempt from Ohio withholding because their income is not subject to Ohio tax. Such employees should complete sections I, III, and IV of the IT 4 only.

The IT 4 does not need to be filed with the Department of Taxation. Your employer must maintain a copy as part of its records.

R.C. 5747.06(A) and Ohio Adm.Code 5703-7-10.

Section I

Enter the four-digit school district number of your primary address. If you do not know your school district of residence or its school district number, use The Finder at tax.ohio.gov. You can also verify your school district by contacting your county auditor or county board of elections.

If you move during the tax year, complete an updated IT 4 immediately reflecting your new address and/ or school district of residence.

Section II

Line 1: If you can be claimed on someone else's Ohio income tax return as a dependent, then you are to enter "0" on this line. Everyone else may enter "1".

Line 2: If you are single, enter "0" on this line. If you are married and you and your spouse file separate Ohio Income tax returns as "Married filing Separately" then enter "0" on this line.

Line 3: You are allowed one exemption for each dependent. Your dependents for Ohio income tax purposes are the same as your dependents for federal income tax purposes. See R.C. 5747.01(O).

Line 5: If you expect to owe more Ohio income tax than the amount withheld from your compensation, you can request that your employer withhold an additional amount of Ohio income tax. This amount should be reported in whole dollars.

Note: If you do not request additional withholding from your compensation, you may need to make estimated income tax payments using form IT 1040ES or estimated school district income tax payments using the SD 100ES. Individuals who commonly owe more in Ohio income taxes than what is withheld from their compensation include:

- Spouses who file a joint Ohio income tax return and both report income, and
- Individuals who have multiple jobs, all of which are subject to Ohio withholding.

Section III

This section is for individuals whose income is deductible or excludable from Ohio income tax, and thus employer withholding is not required. Such employee should check the appropriate box to indicate which exemption applies to him/her. Checking the box will cause your employer to not withhold Ohio income tax and/or school district income tax. The exemptions include:

- Reciprocity Exemption: If you are a resident of Indiana, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Michigan or West Virginia and you work in Ohio, you do not owe Ohio income tax on your compensation. Instead, you should have your employer withhold income tax for your resident state. R.C. 5747.05(A)(2).
- Resident Military Servicemember Exemption: If you are an Ohio resident and a member of the United States Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard (or the reserve components of these branches of the military) or a member of the National Guard, you do not owe Ohio income tax or school district income tax on your active duty military pay and allowances received while stationed outside of Ohio.

This exemption does not apply to compensation for nonactive duty status or received while you are stationed in Ohio.

R.C. 5747.01(A)(21).

- Nonresident Military Servicemember Exemption: If you are a nonresident of Ohio and a member of the uniformed services (as defined in 10 U.S.C. §101), you do not owe Ohio income tax or school district income tax on your military pay and allowances.
- Nonresident Civilian Spouse of a Military Servicemember Exemption: If you are the civilian spouse of a military servicemember, your pay may be exempt from Ohio income tax and school district income tax if all of the following are true:
 - Your spouse is a nonresident of Ohio;
 - You and your spouse are residents of the same state;
 - Your spouse is stationed in Ohio on military orders; and
 - You are present in Ohio solely to be with your spouse.

You must provide a copy of the employee's spousal military identification card issued to the employee by the Department of Defense when completing the IT 4.

As of 12/7/20 this new version of the IT 4 combines and replaces the following forms: IT 4 (previous version), IT 4NR, IT 4 MIL, and IT MIL SP.

Note: For more information on taxation of military servicemembers and their civilian spouses, see 50a U.S.C. §571.

- Statutory Withholding Exemptions: Compensation earned in any of the following circumstances is not subject to Ohio income tax or school district income tax withholding:
 - Agricultural labor (as defined in 26 U.S.C. §3121(g));
 - Domestic service in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority;
 - Services performed by an employee who is regularly employed by an employer to perform such service if she or he earns less than $300 during a calendar quarter;

- Newspaper or shopping news delivery or distribution directly to a consumer, performed by an individual under the age of 18;
- Services performed for a foreign government or an international organization; and
- Services performed outside the employer's trade or business if paid in any medium other than cash.

*These exemptions are not common.

Note: While the employer is not required to withhold on these amounts, the income is still subject to Ohio income tax and school district income tax (if applicable). As such, you may need to make estimated income tax payments using form IT 1040ES and/or estimated school district income tax payments using form SD 100ES.

See R.C. 5747.06(A)(1) through (6).

CELL PHONE POLICY

Accident statistics show that the use of cell phones while driving distracts a driver's attention from traffic conditions. To promote driver safety and to help reduce the possibility of vehicle accidents in connection with cell phone use, the Catholic Diocese of Columbus has adopted the following CELL PHONE POLICY applicable to all employees and volunteers:

- Hand-held cellular phone calls, both incoming and outgoing, are not permitted at any time while driving a vehicle for diocesan business.
- Diocesan business includes travel between the employee's work site and external meeting locations, and between external meeting locations and the employee's work site.
- Accidents occurring while a driver is using a cellular phone may be considered preventable, and subject to corrective action.
- A cellular phone's voicemail feature should be activated to store incoming calls while driving.
- This policy applies to hand-held cell phones only. This policy does not apply to hands-free cell phones.
- All non-emergency calls should be made once the vehicle is safely parked.

I have read and understand the CELL PHONE POLICY of the Catholic Diocese of Columbus, as outlined above. After signing and dating this document, return to the bookkeeper at your location where this will be placed in your employee file.

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PERSONNEL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES CODE RECEIPT AND NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

The Personnel Policy Code describes important information about the Diocese of Columbus, and I understand that I should consult my Director or the Personnel Office regarding any questions not answered in the Handbook.

Since the information, policies, and benefits described here are necessarily subject to change, I acknowledge that revisions to the Personnel Policy Code may occur without prior notice. I understand that revised information may supersede, modify, or eliminate existing policies.

I have entered into my employment relationship with the Diocese of Columbus voluntarily and acknowledge that there is no specified length of employment (those employees under canonical appointment for a specified term notwithstanding). Accordingly, either I or the Diocese of Columbus can terminate the relationship at will, with or without cause, and with or without notice, at any time. I will not rely on any statements made to me that are contrary to this fact. I acknowledge that no employee, agent, or representative of the Diocese has the authority to allow me to engage in any conduct or behavior that in any way conflicts with the policies, rules and regulations contained in this Personnel Policy Code. Furthermore, I acknowledge that this Personnel Policy Code is neither a contract of employment (express or implied) nor does it contain binding representations.

I understand the Personnel Policy Code is available on the diocesan website and have read the Personnel Policy Code. I agree to comply with the policies contained in this Personnel Policy Code and any revisions made to it. I have had an opportunity to ask any questions I may have about its contents, and I understand its contents. I understand that failure to follow these policies will result in corrective action up to and including discharge from employment.

I have read the Diocese of Columbus workplace harassment policy, which is contained in this Personnel Policy Code, and I understand that the Diocese of Columbus will not tolerate harassment in any form in the workplace. I understand that I am to report immediately any harassment that occurs at work, and that the Diocese of Columbus will not permit any retaliation because a complaint was made.

I understand that I am responsible for returning my identification badge, keys and any other property of the Diocese upon termination of my employment with the Diocese.
