Above is the first page of the Register of Baptisms which Father Lamy started in 1845 for the mission church of St. Joseph's, Mohican (Greer), in Holmes County. Father Lamy was the first resident pastor at Danville in Knox County, and from there attended a number of missions and stations in neighboring counties. The first two entries shown above are found also in the Register of Baptisms at Danville. All of Father Lamy's entries were in Latin.

ST. JOSEPH'S, MOHICAN (GREER)

An Additonal Note

The history of St. Joseph's, Mohican (Greer), was given in the July (1978) issue of our BULLETIN of the Catholic Record Society. Therein an attempt was made to determine the date of the building of this early mission church. It was noted that Father Lamy, pastor at Danville, in a letter to Bishop Purcell of Cincinnati, dated Jan. 20, 1844(1), gave the statistics for his missions, including St. Joseph's, for the previous year, 1843. It is evident that there was already a church dedicated to St. Joseph at Mohican.

Father Joshua M. Young, pastor at Lancaster, Ohio, wrote to Bishop Purcell July 21, 1840, giving an account of his activities (2). He had visited Father Lamy at Danville and had helped him "by going to the German Congregation in Holmes County," where there were about 40 families. He stated that it was the wildest part of Ohio he had yet seen, and added, "...they hope to build a church." It seems evident, then, that the church at Mohican (Greer) was built in 1841 or 1842.

(2) Letter from Father Joshua M. Young, of Lancaster, Ohio, to Bishop Purcell of Cincinnati, now in the University of Notre Dame Archives.
